

WSSC Alumni Association Awards Scholarships, Sets Event Dates

The Wallace State Alumni Association recently announced scholarship awards for four Wallace State students.

Amy Deanne Seymore of Arley, Jennifer Cheri Huff of Cleveland, Beneitra Z. Hodges of Florence, and Whitney Shea Sanders of Cleveland were each selected to receive a $500 scholarship from the Wallace State Alumni Association to be used for tuition in Business Administration.

Scholarship winners were chosen by the Alumni Scholarship Committee based on their academic record and participation in campus activities and community service projects. The scholarship is awarded to students who have completed a minimum of 24 semester hours of coursework at Wallace State and have at least a 2.5 GPA. They year in March.

The date for the 2nd Annual Alumni 10K Run has already been set. It will be held on the Wallace State campus on Saturday, March 27, 2004. Funds generated from that event will again be used to award scholarships to second-year Wallace State students to assist with college tuition or books.

tion or books at Wallace State Community College during the 2003-04 academic year.

All four students have completed one year at Wallace State and are beginning their sophomore year. Seymore is an elementary education major. Huff and Sanders are in the Child Development program. Hodges is majoring in Business Administration. must be full-time students at the time of application and maintain at least half-time status to retain the scholarship.

The Alumni Association was able to double its scholarship offerings this year due to the success of its first 10K Alumni Run, a fundraising event for the scholarship fund held earlier this year in March. Alumni Association is open to current and former WSSC students, graduates, faculty and staff, spouses, and friends of the college.

2003-04 WSCC Alumni Officers

The Wallace State Alumni Association installed new officers for the 2003-2004 membership year at a recent Alumni reception held following Wallace State's open house.

New officers for 2003-2004 are President—Grady Smith, Cullman Electric Cooperative; Vice-President—Betty Leeth Haynes; Secretary—Ozell Hinkle, Hinkle Insurance; and Treasurer—Kim Shrewsbury, CRMC. Sue Spradlin is the Alumni Association Coordinator.

Rotating off as association officers were Alan Wood of SouthTrust Bank, who served as 2002-2003 president, and Susan Copeland of Cullman Regional Medical Center, who served as treasurer.

The Wallace State Alumni Association is once again channeling its efforts on raising money for the Alumni Association Scholarship Fund. Four alumni scholarships were awarded this year from funds raised at the first Alumni Scholarship Run.

The association's primary fundraiser for the year will be the second annual Alumni Association 10K Scholarship Run on Saturday, March 27, 2004.

Thank You!

Annual Alumni Membership Drive

Wallace State recently held its annual membership drive in conjunction with Wallace State's Open House on August 17. Two dozen members joined the association during the membership drive. Names of all new and current members were entered into a drawing for door prizes.

Jan Young won the grand prize—seven days for the price of four at The Beach Club in Gulf Shores—compliments of Midnight Properties. Midnight Properties has sponsored the door prize for the Annual Membership Drive since the Alumni Association was founded three years ago. Jan and her husband Carl Young joined the Association during this year's membership drive. Carl is pictured here accepting the award from Darlene Huff, Alumni Association and Wallace State Cooperative Education staff person.

A plant provided by the Wallace State greenhouse was won by Association member and Wallace State employee Karen Johnson.
